

Christina Mohr
M.A. Psychology
Zurich | Switzerland

Christina Mohr was born on April 12, 1962 in Wiesbaden, Germany. She studied Psychology at the Johannes-Gutenberg-University in Mainz, Germany, and graduated in 1988 with a Master of Arts Degree.

In 1989, she began her professional career in Human Resources with General Motors in Germany, working in HR functions at local, regional and global level. With General Motors, Christina Mohr gained professional HR experience in the USA, Austria, and Switzerland.

Christina Mohr moved to Zurich Insurance Company in 2006, where she performed in HR Business Partner, Learning and Development, and Compensation roles. She took the HR lead and worked closely with senior business leaders through a major restructuring project.

In 2014, she assumed the role of Head of Human Resources at FIFA (Fédération Internationale de Football Association). She was responsible for all strategic and operational HR matters for the Zurich-based organization, and instrumental to building up the FIFA World Cup 2018™ organization in Moscow, Russia.

Christina Mohr speaks German, English and French.

She joined Dr. Bjørn Johansson Associates on January 11, 2017.

Dr. Bjørn Johansson Associates is a leading, globally operating Board Advisory Firm, based in Zurich, Switzerland, exclusively focusing on Non-Executive and Executive Board appointments.