Sandra Klein was born in Böblingen, Germany. She graduated in Business and Economics from the University of Stuttgart in 2000 and completed her Executive MBA at the University of St.Gallen, Switzerland, in 2023.

In 2000, Sandra started her professional career as a Project Lead for Controlling & Sales at Daimler AG, heading assignments for the corporation at their locations in Germany, Scandinavia and Switzerland. Three years later she was promoted to Chief of Staff for the Executive Vice President Sales & Marketing at Daimler AG. Subsequent to this position, in 2008, she was appointed Director for Retail Business Development and Member of the Board of Management at Mercedes-Benz Switzerland AG, bearing responsibility for more than 140 retail locations in Switzerland and Liechtenstein. Sandra returned to Daimler AG in 2012 as Head of Compliance and Integrity for Europe, NAFTA, Russia, India, Japan, Korea and Australia, before she joined Mercedes-Benz AMG GmbH at the beginning of 2017 as Head of Strategy, Digital & Purchase. In 2018, she assumed the responsibility for the Global Transformation Office at Mercedes-Benz AG, also being a Member of the Global HR Executive Committee in this position.

In addition to her professional activities, Sandra serves in a number of business and social organisations. She speaks German, English and French.

She joined Dr. Bjørn Johansson Associates in January 2022 as Partner. Dr. Bjørn Johansson Associates is a leading, globally operating Board Advisory Firm, based in Zurich, Switzerland, exclusively focusing on Non-Executive and Executive Board appointments.
